Agenda

April 4, 2023

Did you know...

- ...in 2008, the United States Congress recognized April as National 9-1-1 Education Month, supporting the efforts of the National 9-1-1 Education Coalition to provide resources and materials to support public education about the optimal use of 9-1-1 services nationwide?
- April Education Month Resources

Welcome to Know911.org, a clearinghouse of 9-1-1 educational resources.

Know911.org provides a collection of public education and campaign materials developed by 9-1-1 and shared here to help others educate the public about proper emergency number use. The National Association of State 911 Administrators (NASNA) welcomes all visitors to Know911.org and will continue to provide access to 9-1-1 related educational resources.

Designed by PSAPs, regional 9-1-1 authorities, and state and national 9-1-1 organizations, the materials available here are free and intended to support local efforts to educate communities about 9-1-1 services. Find information here to support recognition of April as 9-1-1 Education Month and general materials, such as flyers, videos and coloring books to promote general awareness of 9-1-1 services.
