8 HOURS CEUS

A powerful full-day course examining the tragic kidnapping and murder of Denise Amber Lee, presented by Nathan Lee, Founder and President of the Denise Amber Lee Foundation. Through firsthand storytelling, participants gain an in-depth look at the 9-1-1 calls and multi-center response involved, highlighting both successes and failures. The course explores how leadership, training, accountability, and empowerment directly impact outcomes in emergency communications. Through real-world scenarios and discussion, the training reinforces the life-saving responsibility and influence of dispatchers and call-takers, with a focus on preventing future tragedies.
